Special Thanks

We appreciate everyone who helped make this concert possible.

Inklings and Lobo, our ticket outlets

Printex Plus for the poster paper

A special thanks to all the band members who gave extra time for planning the concert in addition to all the practice.

ROY CISNEROS

Roy is a lifelong musician who joined the Lone Star Symphonic Band six years ago and has been the band's conductor for the last three years. In addition to his activities as conductor and artistic director of this group, he has also taught award winning junior high and high school bands for the past twelve years. Roy, who is originally from San Antonio, has a Bachelor of Music from North Texas State University.

ANDY MILLS

Andy was instrumental in the resurrection of the Montrose Symphonic Band in 1981. He served as conductor until 1984. He founded and directed the Montrose Chorale and the Montrose Singers. The community music scene felt a great loss in 1988 when Andy moved from Houston. We are proud that he has returned to our community and to us. Andy holds music degrees from Ohio State University.

NANISI BARRETT

Nan came to the Lone Star Symphonic Band from New York where she served as artistic director of the Big Apple Corps and Hot Lavender Swing Band. She serves as the artistic director and conductor of the Lone Star Swing Band. Nan has regularly conducted the massed Lesbian and Gay Bands of America, most recently at our Over the Rainbow concert in Vancouver for the 1990 Gay Games.
